

Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering

Program Educational Objectives (PEOs)

The current educational objectives of the industrial engineering program are:

- Graduates will meet the expectations of employers of Industrial engineers.
- Qualified graduates will pursue advanced study if they so desire.
- Graduates will pursue leadership positions in their profession and/or communities.